Nutrition

Our signature Margherita pizza features the perfect balance of fresh mozzarella, vibrant San Marzano tomatoes, and aromatic basil leaves on our house-made dough. Each pizza is hand-stretched and baked in our traditional brick oven to achieve the ideal crispy yet chewy texture. This classic Italian favorite represents the essence of Neapolitan pizza-making, using only the finest ingredients sourced from trusted suppliers. The result is a harmonious blend of flavors that has made this our most popular menu item.

Our Journey

- Named for Angelo (2013)

Danny DiGiampietro opens the first Angelo's in Haddonfield, NJ, naming it after his newborn son and baking every roll by hand.
- South Philly Debut (2019)

The shop relocates to 736 S 9th St., quickly becoming a must-visit for pizza lovers city-wide.
- Growing the Family (2025)

New shops planned for Conshohocken and Haddon Township to share our rolls with more communities.

“Pizza is love; community is everything.”

— The Angelo's Way

A Message from Danny

Image of Danny

I started Angelo's in 2013 with one oven, a 50-pound bag of flour, and my son's name on the window. We've grown, but the heart of the place hasn't changed: hand-mixed dough, local ingredients, and a line of neighbors we get to call friends.

From the first South Jersey pies to our South Philly home — and soon the suburbs — every roll is still baked in-house, every cheesesteak seared to order, and every guest treated like family.

Thanks for keeping the ovens hot and the tradition alive.

— Danny DiGiampietro, Founder

Our Values

Scratch-Made Dough

Scratch-Made Dough

Every crust begins at 4 a.m. with flour, water, and a decades-old starter — never frozen, never outsourced.

Local Ingredients

Local Ingredients

Cheese from South-Jersey dairies, produce from the Italian Market, and rolls baked in-house every day.

Honest Pricing

Cash-Only Honesty

No processing fees or gimmicks — just fair prices and a trusty cash register.
